Are there any specific limits on what the insurance policy covers?

- ! The insurance policy does not cover damages caused by natural disasters or damages caused by war, terrorism, pollution, or other similar events.

Where is the insurance valid?

- Home contents insurance is valid in your home which is listed on the insurance policy.
- Liability insurance is valid in Iceland and while traveling abroad for up to three months.
- Leisure accident insurance and hospitalization insurance are valid anywhere in the world.

What are my responsibilities?

- You must report damages as soon as possible and no later than one year from the date of the damage.
- You must ensure that all the information on the insurance policy is accurate.
- You must inform us of any changes to your home address, phone number, and email address.
- You are required to follow the precautions in the insurance policy terms, such as making sure that doors, windows, and other openings into the insured area are securely locked and the keys stored in such a way that unauthorized individuals can not access them

When and how do I pay the premium?

The premium must be paid on the due date. When the insurance policy is issued or renewed an electronic claim is created in your online bank. You have the option to distribute the premium payments by:

- Credit card payment, where the premium is charged monthly to a credit or debit card.
- Direct payment, where your bank account is debited monthly.

When does the insurance policy take effect and when does it expire?

The insurance policy takes effect when an offer is accepted and is renewed annually until it is canceled.

How do I cancel the insurance policy?

- Individuals and companies with fewer than five full-time positions may cancel their insurance at any time and it will expire at the end of the following month after the cancellation is received. Other companies can cancel their insurance one month in advance before the end of the insurance period.
- The cancellation must be in writing, for example with an electronic signature.
